12th April 2005

Transfer of Dealing to the Irish Enterprise Exchange of the Irish Stock Exchange

The board of Minmet plc ("MinMet" or "the Company") advises that, with effect from the start of trading today, 12 April, 2005, the Company's market quotation on the Irish Stock Exchange, will be transferred from the Exploration Securities Market ("ESM") to the new Irish Enterprise Exchange ("IEX").

The transfer of MinMet's quotation to the IEX follows the Irish Stock Exchange's launch of the IEX from opening of trading on 12 April 2005 and the subsequent transfer to the IEX of all companies traded on the ESM. MinMet welcomes the introduction of the IEX and the enhanced flexibility that the IEX regime affords quoted companies.

Davy will continue as Irish broker to the Company and will also act as IEX Adviser pursuant to the IEX Rules.
